MAKE MATHEMATICS COME ALIVE FOR STUDENTS

Pictured above are Mrs. Yvonne Paulette of the Appomattox Primary School and Mrs. Janet Morgan of Pamplin Elementary School setting up a math display for the State Mathematics Conference held in Charlottesville on February 10 and 11. Appomattox County was one of five divisions invited by the State Department of Education to participate.

Basic Learning Skills for k - 6 students were passed by the state legislature in 1977 and are now part of the Standards of Quality. Teachers of the Pamplin Elementary and Appomattox Primary Schools made match manipulations to implement the Basic Learning Skills. In addition, the teachers have been invited to participate in a state booklist which will be published for each elementary teacher in Virginia!

58% Entering DASH's Program Completed Treatment

Fifty eight per cent of the individuals (excluding jail inmates) who entered DASH's counseling and educational program in 1977 completed their treatment and there was a 62% decrease in drug usage.

Miss Sue Holland, Director of DASH (Drug Abuse Services and Hub) released the agency's annual statistics Friday.

She further noted that DASH, which began in July 1974, served 673 individuals for a total of 1,219 visits.

Most of these were from the city of Lynchburg. However, every jurisdiction in Planning District 11 were served.

The average length of treatment for clients was four months.

There were 319 jail visits in DASH's jail component of its comprehensive Drug Abuse Program. Ivory Glass, jail counselor, was mainly responsible for this program. Twenty nine of the jail clients were incarcerated usually on other criminal offenses other than drugs.

"One exciting accomplishment for us in our jail outreach program was our preparing the motivation and counseling & coaching and the opportunity for four Campbell County jail inmates to take their final G.E.D. diploma test in jail," stated Miss Holland. "We are awaiting their results, but to have had four persons study and prepare for the test and take it under DASH's initiative was an accomplished goal for our program."

Miss Holland cited two significant program accomplishments in 1977. One was the initiating of a program for juvenile offenders of possession of marijuana and alcohol related offenses. Second, the DASH Program, located at 1010 Miller Park Square, was licensed by the State Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation. The licensure process itself took over a year. It involved completing on paper all policies and procedures of the program in accordance with state standards.

Fifty four percent of clients DASH served were in age bracket of 12-19 and 43% were in the 20-30 age group.

The majority of DASH's clients had 8th grade or above education. Seventy three per cent of the data reported clients had high school education.

The primary drug use of clients at time of admission was marijuana/hashish or 58% of the total designated drug abusers. Alcohol was the second frequent drug abused or 17% of the total drug abusers.

DASH uses the CODAP reporting system. CODAP stands for Client Data Acquisition Process. It is a data collection system developed and operated by the National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) in federally funded drug abuse treatment facilities. Certain requirements, such as if a client's use of drug abuse is causing him to be dysfunctional, determines whether a client is reported in this data system. There is no provision for assistance or counseling to parents or family members or consulting with Emergency Room doctors or any one-time crisis intervention.

Employment of clients in DASH's program increased. Twenty four percent were employed when they entered DASH's program. Forty four per cent were employed at time of discharge, an increase of 20%.

Other statistics included in the annual report from Miss Holland were: 379 client telephone calls, 16 crisis telephone calls, 951 interviews and screenings, 221 consultations about clients, 472 educational presentations with 9,560 consultees 7 group sessions, 6 referrals out to other agencies, 37 follow-ups, 44 family conferences, 10 walk-ins receiving printed information, 40 youths in Juvenile Court Program, 6 adults in Va. Adult Probation Court Screening done by DASH, and 2 adults in Federal Court Screening done by DASH.

Thirty eight percent of the referrals made to DASH came through the courts - either the Juvenile & Domestic Court, the Va. Adult Probation Court or the Federal Probation Court. Second highest referrals (25%) come from the jail and 12% from self or family.

DASH offers crisis advice, counseling, education and prevention. "Two of our prevention programs have been well received and the results quite positive," shared Miss Holland.

SODA (Students Organized for Developing Attitudes) is a preventive mental health program involving high school students working with 6th or 7th graders to strengthen self image and coping abilities. The aim of SODA is to offer these pre-adolescents alternatives to drugs by strengthening their attudes of themselves and their education of drug abuse. Mrs. Nancy Evans is Director of SODA.

In 1977 there were 143 high schoolers from throughout Planning District 11 involved in SODA. They served some 829 elementary students or middle school ages.

Since its inception in 1974, SODA has had 303 high schoolers involved in peer influencing of 1,715 children.

A second prevention program DASH initiated and has continued is Peer Group Counseling in the middle schools. There were 30 special students who received from 10 to 15 weeks of group counseling in the middle school or junior highs in Lynchburg, Campbell County and Amherst in 1977.

The Peer Group Counseling involves DASH professional counselors in cooperation with other professional agencies, serving as co-counselors in a peer group. Currently other agencies participating with DASH staff are Family Service of Central Virginia, the Mental Health Association of the Lynchburg Area, CASE (Community Alcohol Services & Education).

"DASH has since its beginning sought to cooperate & utilize other agencies in our community to enhance meeting the needs of drug abusers," emphasized Miss Holland.

DASH staff were also busy in continual study and updating their skills and knowledge. The staff attended a total of 21 training events which included Minority Counseling, Gestalt, Stress Workshop, Client Centered Counseling, Values Clarification, Assessment Interviewing, Transactional Analysis, and many others.

Other highlights of DASH's program last year included co-sponsoring an Alcohol & Youth Workshop held December 15-16, 1977 at Central Virginia Community College. Some 42 area school counselors, social services workers, probation officers and other agency personnel attended.

A repeat of that workshop is to be held April 3-4, 1978 also at Central Virginia Community College.

DASH closed its branch inner city DASH office at the end of September 1977 because of a lack of utilization of that location. Staff were continued and were moved to DASH's main office at 1010 Miller Park Square.

DASH, in cooperation with three other drug programs in HSA III, developed five 30 second television spots. These have been aired over Lynchburg and Roanoke stations.

For the second straight year, DASH also had an intern. Mrs. Katherine Hatcher of Lynchburg served 4 months on DASH staff as her field placement for completing her Master's in Counseling from the University of Virginia.
